

DETAILS

tech + design

11 Luxury Destinations with an Eco-Conscience

An Earth Day ode to upscale resorts that practice sustainability in noble and novel ways.

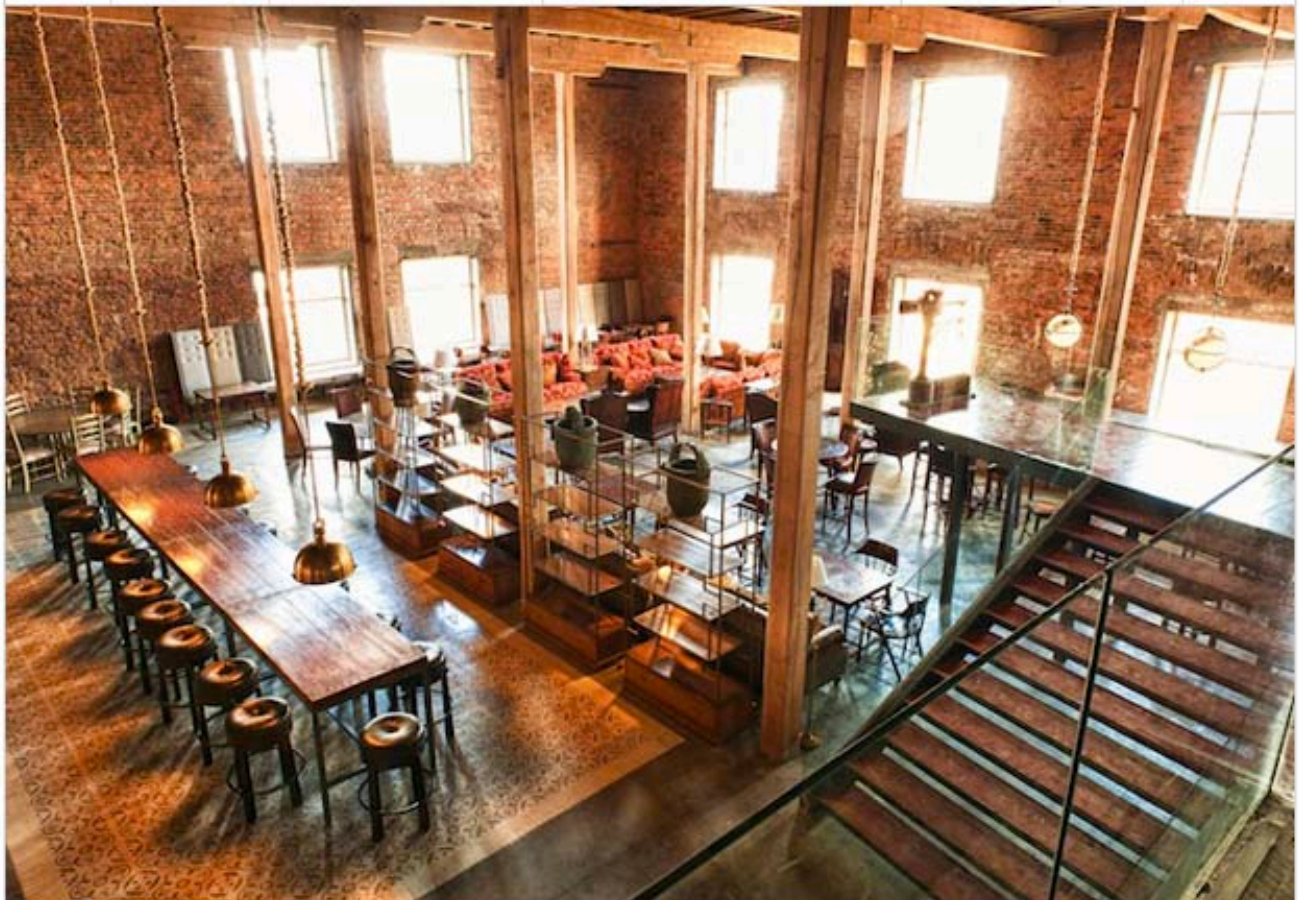

BY JESSICA FESTA

▶ PLAY ◻ ENLARGE ▣ VIEW ALL THUMBNAILS

◀ PREVIOUS

2 / 12

NEXT ▶

The Singular Patagonia

Puerto Natales, Chile, Patagonia

Located in a former cold-storage plant that processed sheep in the early 20th century, this LEED-Silver certified national historic landmark retained much of the structure's original wood, bricks, and metal piping. A wellness spa incorporates mineral-rich local glacial water and fruit extracts and herbs from native species.

thesingular.com